
Week 23 commencing 1st June 2026

Early Edition - 9.45am & 1.45pm

Commencing on Monday the 1st of June and running until Friday the 31st of July the Victor Harbor Regional Gallery, 7A Railway Terrace, Victor Harbor, will be holding their annual resale of art works. Often these are beautiful historic works purchased at past Rotary Art Shows etc. Two original, quality art works (no prints or photographs) will be accepted per person, and can be delivered from Sunday 31 May. A fee of $10 per art work will be charged and a 33.3% commission. This goes towards the running of this self-funded gallery. Winter opening hours are daily from 11am to 3pm.

Celebrate the start of Winter Whale Fest with a short, meaningful ceremony as we welcome the whales back to their winter sanctuary. Local Elders will lead a Welcome to Country and a traditional smoking ceremony, offering speeches and blessings for the land, waters, and the month ahead. The ceremony will be conducted from 10 am to 11 am on Saturday the 6th of June at Warland Reserve, Victor Harbor.

Join Sachiko and learn how to make delicious, nutritious and warming 'OKONOMIYAKI', Japanese omelettes. This cooking workshop will be held at The Port Elliot RSL on Saturday the 13th of June between 1.00pm and 3.00pm. The cost is $40. For bookings please phone the Goolwa Community Centre on 8555 3941 or email admin@goolwacommunitycentre.org.au

Are you an aspiring writer? Do you have an interesting life story to tell? Come and participate in a Life Writing course with award winning poet and author Jude Aquilina. The course will be held on Saturday the 27th of June from 10 am to 4pm. The cost is $90. For bookings please call the Goolwa Community Centre on 8555 3941 or email admin@goolwacommunitycentre.org.au

The end of the financial year will be upon us soon and help with your tax returns is available. A service run by the ATO and delivered by a trained volunteer to help people on low incomes lodge their tax returns is available at the Goolwa Community Centre, 25 Cadell Street, Goolwa. It's free and is held on Wednesdays between 10.00am and 3.00pm. Bookings are essential, please phone: 8555 3941 or email: admin@goolwacommunitycentre.org.au.

This Community Roundup was brought to you by the Goolwa and District Community Bank –

“Bank in the community for the community” - proud Sponsors of Radio Goolwa.

If you have missed any details from this session, it is available on our website, alexfm.com.au under Community. Contact us on admin@alexfm.com.au or fill out our Community Roundup submission form 3 weeks before your event to have your message read out on air.

Week 23 commencing 1st June 2026

Late Edition - 4.15pm & 6.45pm

The SA Police Band is Australia's longest running and favourite police band. Join them for a delightful performance by this sensational band at the Goolwa Centenary Hall on Friday the 19th of June for performances at 2pm and 5 pm. Enjoy their extensive repertoire of classics and sing alongs. Tickets are $22 and can be purchase at the venue or to book your seats phone: 0421 651 451 or email: stephen@allsortsofentertainment.com.au

The Yankalilla Craft and Produce market will be held on Saturday 20th June from 9.00am till 2.00pm at the Yankalilla Showgrounds, Main South Road, Yankalilla. There will be a variety of stalls inside and outside which will include: Fresh fruit and veggies, olive oil, Kangaroo Falls Apiary – Honey, Weaving and spinning products from Oak Weaving Studio, Hand spun and knitted Alpaca designs by Judy, Pet Treats by Floof'N Paws, Coffee by Coffee Monger, Quirky cards by Suzy, Rocks and Minerals handcrafted jewellery, Beautiful bath and body products by Lemon Grass and Lime. Most importantly a Coffee van and Delicious Thai food by Hunger Eaze will be on site. There will also be Great live entertainment by local Normanville duo Hamish and Christine. Pop along for a lovely day of bargains and browsing at the very friendly country market. For further details please contact Mattie Darg on 0447 044 721

Oceans Calling – A Musical Ode to the Giants of the Sea is a unique performance where live art meets soundscape. Expect haunting vocals, shifting textures, projected imagery, and the living presence of the sea woven through every note. This is not a concert you simply watch - it's an experience you feel. You'll be invited to join the rhythm, adding your voice to the chorus becoming part of the performance. Children under 12 are free, making this a magical evening for the whole family. Saturday the 13th of June, from 7:00pm to 9:00pm at the Art of You Studio, 90 Hill Street, Port Elliot.

The Australian National Busking Competition is coming to Goolwa on the 3rd of October 2026. Start getting your act together now. For more details contact the Goolwa Community Centre on 8555 3941 or email goolwaccbusking@gmail.com

This Community Roundup was brought to you by the
Goolwa and District Community Bank –
“Bank in the community for the community” - proud Sponsors of Radio Goolwa.

If you have missed any details from this session, it is available on our website, alexfm.com.au under Community. Contact us on admin@alexfm.com.au or fill out our Community Roundup submission form 3 weeks before your event to have your message read out on air.